

RUNNING HEADER 1/2" FROM TOP OF PAGE, NOT ON FIRST PAGE, CENTERED, IN SMALL CAPS. EVEN PAGE NUMBERS IN TOP LEFT CORNER, ODD PAGE NUMBERS IN TOP RIGHT CORNER

TITLE (ALL CAPS)

AUTHOR (CAPS AND SMALL CAPS)

The page size is 6" x 9" with .75" top and bottom margins, .5" left and right margins, and a .5" gutter. This paragraph is set in the default text style (Paragraph). Other paragraph styles are illustrated below.

- 1) line 1 (example)
line 2 (parse)
line 3 (interlinear)
line 4 (gloss)
- 2) line 1 (example)
line 2 (parse)
line 3 (interlinear) — if there is a line 2a, turn off “Keep with Next”
line 2a (parse line 2)
line 3a (interlinear line 2)
line 4 (gloss)

This paragraph is formatted in “after data” style (no indent, 12 pts before). There are also three character styles here—data, dataitalic, and ABBREVIATIONS. You can use the “data” styles for language data (“data” in line 1 and “dataitalic” in-text) or to define a phonetic font if Times New Roman doesn’t have the symbols you need. Right now they are unspecified and you might not need them. The ABBREVIATIONS style is 9 PT SMALL CAPS.<sup>1</sup>

For additional style information and information about bibliographic style consult the IJAL website (http://www.americanlinguistics.org/?page\_id=31) and The Chicago Manual of Style, 16th ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2010). Specific questions about formatting can be addressed to the series editors.

This is the November 2015 version of the template. Please check with the editors for updates.

REFERENCES (reference title)

bibliographic citations (references) in 8pt

---

<sup>1</sup> footnotes (Footnote Text) are 8 pt type, first line indented like a regular paragraph.